“Hear ALL the choral movements from the cantatas of J.S. Bach.

Join the performers in singing the final chorale in each concert.”

HAROLD ROSENBAUM
FOUNDER AND CONDUCTOR

Join me on a journey like no other. Immerse yourself in unparalleled musical and spiritual experiences. Go beyond the familiar cantatas to discover hidden masterpieces with an astounding range of expression and styles.

There are 186 complete choral cantatas in J.S. Bach’s catalogue. But how many of us have had the chance to hear ALL the choral movements performed live? Now is your chance to do that in fifteen concerts with both The New York Virtuoso Singers and The Canticum Novum Singers spanning two seasons (2021-2022 and 2022-2023). You can participate by singing the final chorale of the evening, as did the congregants in Bach’s churches, or simply sit back, relax and take in Bach’s transcendent creations.

WHEN:

- Saturday evenings in NYC
- Sunday afternoons in Katonah (Upper Westchester)

WHERE:

- St. Michael’s Episcopal Church, Amsterdam Ave. between 99th and 100th Streets, NYC
- St. Luke’s Episcopal Church, 68 Bedford Rd., Katonah, NY

WHO:

The New York Virtuoso Singers and The Canticum Novum Singers will rotate, performing 15 different programs in 21 concerts with fabulous pianists.

“The choir’s contribution to Bach’s mournful Cantata No. 118, “O Jesu Christ Meins Lebens Licht,” was beautifully polished.”
